

5 Boring Job Skills Worksheet - Find Yours

Companion to the video. Run this on the boring skill people in your office quietly come to YOU for.

Section 1 — The 3-question sellable-skill test

Three yeses = sellable. Two or fewer = save the skill, find a different one. Don't force a no into a yes.

1. Does someone with less experience than you in your industry need this work done? Yes No
2. Can the OUTPUT be packaged into a deliverable (template / checklist / SOP / guide)? Yes No
3. Would YOU pay $20 to skip learning it from scratch if you were two years younger? Yes No

Section 2 — Map your skill to one of the 5 patterns

Five real working professionals · five composites · zero quitting. Sum: $3,495/mo.

Pattern	Real example from video	Your version
Excel template	Mike — $720/mo (3 variants x 4 launches)	_____
PM toolkit	PM at SaaS firm — 29 x $20 = $580/mo	_____
HR template	HR coordinator — 11 x $35 = $385/mo	_____
Bookkeeping SOP	Bookkeeper — 27 x $30 + $50 add-ons = $810/mo	_____
Process SOP	Process mgr (left BigCo) — 20 x $50 + $97 trainings = $1,000/mo	_____

Section 3 — Pick 1 + draft your version

1. The boring task at my job that other people quietly come to me for is:

2. The deliverable shape would be (template / checklist / SOP / guide):

3. The first 1 person who would pay $20 for it is:

Section 4 — First action this weekend

Build Sat · edit Sun · first sale by Monday.

- Sat AM (Hours 1-5): Build the deliverable.
- Sat PM (Hour 6): Open Claude/ChatGPT, draft the Reddit/LinkedIn post.
- Sun AM: Post.
- By Wednesday: Review the math (sales x $20).
